Format II
"Space Format"

This format is set-up like the cheesy science fiction shows of the 1950's, space patrol, Colonel Bleep, Space Cadet etc.

Each thrilling episode has Comander Höek and his trusty sidekick, Cadet Stimpy rocketing through space on a mission of glory in the year 400 Billion!

The styling of these episodes is very cool. 50's populaxe. Big, bulky, futuristic, chrome paraphenelia. We'll make the Jetsons look Primitive.

Space Format Running Gags

Zero G.- Stimpy never gets used to weightlessness. He always has space sickness. His hairballs are always floating around in Ren's cabin.

Eating in Zero G. also creates problems. Floating french fries and Coke. Globules are a constant source of wacky horeseplay for out heroes.

Cliffhangers:

Each episode ends in an impossible cliffhanger that we never resolve

"Tune in again next week folks, as we completely ignore another fantastic crisis with Commander Höek & Stimpypy!!

Futuristic Jargon:

Nothing in the future has a normal name:

EG → LITTER-O-RAMA

OTHER
GAGS,

SQUEEZE TUBE FOOD

LITTERBOX...ETC.
